Did You Protect Your Travel Investment?

Planning your travel is an exciting opportunity to explore the possibilities your destination may hold. If you have to cancel your trip, you may lose most or all of your travel investment, based on the supplier's cancellation policy. Once you depart, lost, stolen or damaged luggage, travel delays or medical emergencies can put a damper on your excitement. Allianz Travel Insurance products* can help protect your travel investment and your excitement!

Please indicate your decision, provide your information, and return this form to your travel agent for our records.
